

Canadian Police Association
Association canadienne des policiers

Mr. Satel Parhar
Vice President of Relations
The Newly Institute
2303 4 St. SW
Calgary, AB
T2S 2S7

Dear Mr. Parhar,

On behalf of the Canadian Police Association, I am pleased to offer the following endorsement of The Newly Institute:

“It is well established that first responders face unique mental health challenges because of the work they do every day, and expanding access to effective treatment options that are tailored to meet the demands of our members has been a key priority for the Canadian Police Association. As an organization, we are extremely pleased to work with the Newly Institute to help achieve this goal and strongly believe that their approach helps normalize and lessen any stigma towards seeking treatment, which unfortunately remains a significant barrier in the policing sector.

Their treatment model focuses on keeping our members engaged with work and their personal lives while addressing the root of any mental and physical health symptoms, recognizing that the longer someone stays off work, the less likely it is they will be able to eventually return. This approach is better for our members, better for our police services, and better for the public we serve.”

Regards,

Tom Stamatakis
President, Canadian Police Association

(Sent via electronic correspondence)